Dear Margie,

As you may have been told, the substance of our DDA Office Directors' Conference was splashed with "pink and blue." I want to thank you for your contribution. With due ceremony, I was presented the tie as the final event of the weekend and I was most appreciative. You are to be commended for your skill as a tie-maker. This was certainly confirmed by my colleagues.

I can't promise you that I will wear the tie to the office but be assured it will hold a special place in my wardrobe as a reminder of a most enjoyable (and successful) weekend.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jack
